My only sweetheart:

A dear letter from you to-day. Ma got one also, too bad Sterling is so poorly, hope he is O.K. by now.

Ila & Thof gone to meeting -

Chas & Travis down for night.

Pa just gone to bed, is feeling well - Chas Toulloch & Bob Virtue expected down this eve, but its nearly 8 P.M. now, so guess they won't come.

I just can't write any thing, as I have nothing of interst to say. It looks as though everything I suggest as a good proposition, is turned down as though of course, its absurd or else some one else would do it.

Nailor Williams was here to-day, is working on the Browns Vwley mine & seems to think there is lots of money there to be made easily, & wants me to go up with him, I may do it, but I would kike to have a few dollars ready money, to go down into the Corcoran country, there is a chance to make a nice turn down there, if I had $5000.00 to invest right now, I think I could make 10 times the amount inside of two years. I will write you all about it when I get my wits together again. ma is reading aloud to Chas. & Travis its hard to write.

I sent the postal to Joe, I have not seen him yet.

I won't try to write any more this time.

All ways yours only

Paul
