

717 Madison, Seattle
May 12, 1909

My dearest,

I arrived to-day at 4:45 PM. was due at 4:15.

The first thing I did, was to go to the Cecil, found a letter there from Lou, he sailed the 10th inst., but did not leave me a gun said he only had one with him, and needed that.

The Lindsay is billed to sail the 15th, I expect to go on her, Some other boat is to sail the 16th, so I will go down in the A. M. to both S.S. offices and then decide which to take.

Irene and Mark and their twin boys are here and they are fine fellows, the boys. Grandma is fine, seems about the same, only I can notice she is a little weaker but is just as interested in everything we are are doing as ever. Aunt Lute and Aunt Tolly look about the same only fleshier, Aunt Tolly looks a lot fleshier -

I had a pleasant trip all the way. but I got lonesome and more lonesome each day traveled. Well they are all talking so I will stop, can't think.

Love to all
Yours
Paul